Welcome them back!

Five great bands for March; hopefully the weather will start warming up so you can come out and enjoy!!

Hello Brothers and Co-Workers; If you bring a guest to show them around make sure they have a good time and encourage them to join us to help build our membership. Don't forget the $20 application fee has been waived. It's just $60 a year. St. Patricks' Day is March 17; don't forget to wear green!

We need volunteers for the board. If you are interested in running for the board, see Jesse or any board member.

We still have great Friday night dinners with Karaoke and Saturday night dances starting at 8:30. Come out and enjoy your lodge. Support your social quarters. We have games, food and drinks.

April newsletter information is due to Jesse by March 7th.

The following Officer positions for the LOOM are open: Governor, Junior Governor, Prelate, Three-Year Trustee and Treasurer.

The Nominating Committee will meet (tentatively: March 2 and 16th.) until nominations are closed on March 21st. Eligibility to run for Governor: Must have served in an elected office for (1) year in your lodge preceding (6) months of the election; Junior Governor: Been an active member of the lodge for (6) months preceding date of election; Prelate: Been a member of the lodge for (6) months preceding date of election and Treasurer and Trustee: Must be an active member of the lodge. See any member on the nominating committee for the form to fill out if you would like to be nominated.

Nominations will CLOSE and be announced to the floor on MARCH 21st with election on APRIL 4th at our regular meeting.

Candy and Timmy Baines, volunteers behind the bar, decided that our little kitchen needed spring cleaning, so they rolled up their shirt sleeves and went to work. They cleaned the walls and fixtures, painted and moved some items to make working better for our volunteers. Thank you, Candy and Timmy, for your three days of work and improving the appearance of our kitchen.
