Official Communication #2 for December 2, 2015

Highlighted in yellow is a clarification from the previous Official Communication.

Important Message From Moose Charities

The Moosehaven Board of Directors and the Supreme Council have approved the $10,000,000 Capital Campaign 'Moosehaven Centennial Project', introduced at the Nashville International Convention by Executive Director John Capes. The goal of this project is to improve the quality of life for Traditional residents and provide them with new facilities which in turn, will reduce operating expenses. The new living facility will be located immediately east and across the street from the Donald R. Eisel Ohio Assisted Living Hall. It will have three stories with two wings. ~~Each of the 105 residential apartments will include an in-house kitchen and dining area, up-to-date technologies, in-house amenities and tricycle parking.~~ The 105 residential unit apartment building will include an in-house kitchen and dining area, up-to-date technologies, in-house amenities and tricycle parking.
