

Official Communication for May 3, 2016

Scam via Email

We have been made aware of a recent scam to obtain user's information. It is not an email communication from Moose International. If you receive an email asking you to provide any user information, such as your user name and password, please do not respond. We ask that you immediately delete the email.