Official Communication for November 23, 2016

Important information from the Legal Department

Please note on Tuesday November 22, 2016, a federal court granted a preliminary injunction against the Department of Labor for proposed changes to the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA). The effect of this action is that the proposed FLSA revisions will not go into effect on December 1, 2016, as previously scheduled. The proposed changes will eventually be reviewed by the US Supreme Court or otherwise revised by the next presidential administration before they become effective. Please call the Legal Department if you have any questions.
